Exciting and Diverse Curriculum

Explore the meanings and mysteries of dreams and nightmares with world-famous authors, psychotherapists, psychoanalysts, artists, educators, and researchers in the field of Dream Studies. The 4½ day conference features over 100 separate events, including a diversity of workshops, panels, clinical presentations, research papers, and symposia. The conference opens with a reception, and includes social events, lunches with experts, a cruise on the San Francisco Bay, dream art, video, and performance events, and ends with the ever-popular costume "Dream Ball" on Tuesday evening with a live band.

INSPIRING FACULTY

Presenters include Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni (Queen of Dreams and Mistress of Spices); G.William Domhoff, Ph.D. (The Scientific Study of Dreams); Brooks Brenneis, Ph.D. (Recovered Memories of Trauma); Charles Tart, Ph.D. (States of Consciousness); Ernest Hartmann, M.D. (Dreams and Nightmares); Patricia Garfield, Ph.D. (Creative Dreaming); Stanley Krippner, Ph.D. (Dreamtime and Dreamwork); Rev. Jeremy Taylor, D.Min., S.Th.D. (The Language of Dreams) and many more.

VENUE

The Conference will be held on the San Francisco Bay at the Doubletree Hotel at the Berkeley Marina. The setting offers spectacular views of the Golden Gate Bridge and San Francisco, a wildlife sanctuary, large waterfront park, and ready access to Berkeley's 4th Street shops and restaurants. Use the hotel as a base for a Northern California vacation to the wine country, Redwoods, and the attractions of San Francisco.

REGISTER EARLY

On-line registration for the conference is recommended. You can register and pay on-line at <http://www.ASDreams.org/2005>. Printable registration forms can also be downloaded, printed and mailed in with a check or credit card information.

Rates increase on June 10th, so don't wait. Make lodging recommendations directly with the DoubleTree Hotel toll free at 510-548-7920 or (800) 528-0444. Ask for the special ASD Conference group rate: $119 single, $129 double plus state and local tax. Special room rates are limited and rooms with the very best views are on a first-come first-serve basis.

Transportation

The Doubletree Hotel at the Berkeley Marina is easily accessible from the Oakland airport (20 miles) or San Francisco Airport (30 miles). Access is easy by cab or rental car. Airport limousine information is available on our web site. Once at the hotel, there is regular local bus transport around the Berkeley area and easy access to San Francisco from Berkeley by Bay Area Rapid Transit.

About IASD

The International Association for the Study of Dreams (ASD) is a nonprofit, international, multidisciplinary organization dedicated to the exploration and investigation of dreams and dreaming. Visit our educational web site.

Continuing Education (CE)

Professional Continuing Education credits will be offered for selected conference events for psychologists and mental health and health practitioners through the California BBSE, and APA (pending application). Dream Studies Continuing Education credits will also be offered to interested counselors and educators.
